BLACK OPS

MCLAREN VALE, AUSTRALIA 2013

$12.99

"Bouquet: A stealthy amalgam of these three family members. Florals and liquorice from the Shiraz; meaty, savory spices from the Mataro; and a note of exotic intrigue from the Saperavi. Palate: Rich, fleshy and spicy. The 'gritty tannin' reputation of the Mataro softens with the amalgamation of the Shiraz & Saperavi. It's a Black Ops version of black magic. Every variety is pulling its weight in contributing to a very successful operation here."

*Winemaker's notes

"Dark and richly textured with mint, blackberry, and dark fruit, accompanied by an expansive mouthfeel and well-integrated tannin. Outstanding!"

AATTO RED BLEND

PASO ROBLES, CALIFORNIA 2012

$24.99

QUOTED AT $40.00* YOU SAVE $15.01

"A blend of 44% Mourvèdre, 39% Counoise and 17% Grenache, the 2012 AATTO sports a semi-opaque ruby color to go with ripe berry and strawberry fruits, crushed flowers and hints of leather. Made in a seamless, finesse-driven style, with medium-bodied richness and mid-weight texture, I like the overall balance and it scores high on drinkability. I don't think it will make old bones, but it should have no problem dishing out plenty of pleasure over the coming 2-3 years."

89 POINTS Wine Advocate, August 27, 2014

"Vivid red. Fresh raspberry and floral oil scents are lifted by a note of white pepper. Silky and sweet, offering juicy red fruit and spicecake flavors that flesh out with air. With no obvious tannins and lingering floral character, this blend is smooth and extremely easy to drink."

"The 2012 Vaalea has the aroma of pineapple, peach, and other tropical fruits. We don't allow our white to go through malolactic fermentation, which results in clean, crisp, fruit-forward flavors, wonderful acidity, and a long, complex finish."

*Winemaker's notes

"Ripe and round. Passion fruits, apricot, and peach-mango flavors. Quite rich and saturating. If you like a fuller-bodied white, this is it."

"Red fruits of cherry and raspberry fill the mouth with hints of coffee, dried herbs, and toasted oak. Medium body balances with long, lingering, soft tannins on the finish. Our Cabernet Sauvignon is complex and balanced with a touch of oak and can be cellared for years to come."

*Winemaker's notes

"Year after year, Shannon Ridge demonstrates why it is the best winery in Lake County, California. This Cabernet is filled with cherry and raspberry liqueur all dressed up around a core of creamy oak and vanilla bands. Exceptional!"

"... and then you breathe in the aromas of roasted fig, sweet tobacco leaves, cedar wood and spicy white pepper. The nose is completed with raspberries, crushed blackberries and maybe just a hint of smoky vanilla. Then you taste big, round ripe tones of raspberry, violets and late-summer, hillside wild strawberries. Then it finishes with white pepper in a lingering, soft landing of polished tannins."

*Winemaker's notes

"Dried cherry, plum, and licorice along with cedar, blackberry and purple flowers. A rich and savory Cabernet with great viscosity and depth of flavors and tannin. Excellent!"

"Our Covey Run Riesling offers delightful floral aromas that give way to bright citrus notes with a hint of minerality. Lovely flavors of peach and apricot stretch across the palate and create a well-balanced wine with crisp acidity. Our Riesling pairs well with a variety of foods, but we enjoy it most with spicy dishes and smoked salmon."

*Winemaker's notes

"Pineapple, peach, lemon drop and hints of grapefruit. Sweet yet refreshing because the acidity is in check. The holidays are coming; buy up."
